

★ Business

WHAT ARE YOU LOOKING FOR?

get it together.

Pick your hometown
and click on GO

Alsip

Business

- A Kick in the Attitude
- Agenda
- Here to There
- It Pays
- Nnedi on the Net
- The Inside Scoop

- At Home
- Dimensions
- First Look
- News
- Obituaries
- Opinion
- Sports

.....

- About Us
- Classifieds
- E-mail
- Search
- Subscribe

Pacesetters

Who's making news in the biz world

Thursday, December 9, 2004

CCI awards

Creative Colors International has named the recipients of several of the company's awards at its recent annual convention in Alsip.

Jose Del Liano, owner of CCI Orlando, Fla., won Franchisee of the Year, an award based on communication with the corporate office regarding ideas that will better the system, and the demonstration of successful growth of the CCI system.

Chris Shefts, a technician at CCI in Waitekus, Ill., won Technician of the Year, based on sales and awarded to technicians with more than one year of experience.

Henry East, owner of CCI in Mansfield, Ohio, won Rookie of the Year, which is based on sales and awarded to franchisees with less than one year of service.

Sandy Jozaitis

Advocate South Suburban Hospital in Hazel Crest recently announced the appointment of Sandy Jozaitis, R.N., as vice president of operations and chief nursing officer.

Jozaitis has been a member of the hospital staff for 22 years. Prior to joining South Suburban Hospital, she worked as a staff nurse in the open-heart intensive care unit of Mercy Hospital in Chicago.

While at SSH, Jozaitis has been a staff nurse and assistant manager in the ICU and has served as staff scheduling coordinator and nursing practice coordinator.

For the past nine years, she has directed SSH's telemetry units and has served as interim vice president of nursing since February.

Steven F. Rosenbaum

Steven F. Rosenbaum, president and chief executive officer of Prospect Federal Savings Bank, Worth, has been appointed to the board of directors of the Illinois League of Financial Institutions, a statewide trade association serving the state's savings and community banking institutions.

Rosenbaum is serving on a board of 20 directors and officers for a one-year term as of Oct. 1. As a director, he will participate in board policy decisions on legislative and other matters affecting Illinois' savings and community banking institutions, and saving and borrowing public.

Prior to joining Prospect Federal, Rosenbaum was a lobbyist and manager of the workers' compensation and unemployment insurance programs for the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce.

Dorothy Driver

Dorothy Driver has led the Homewood Realty Executives South office in transactions closed for the past eight months.

Driver serves as a member of a group of consultants to the Chicago Teachers Board to encourage Chicago teachers to become homeowners. In this capacity, she was recently interviewed on CBS television.

Promotions, new employees and other business people news — along with headshots if available — can be submitted to John K. Ryan, Star Newspapers, 6901 W. 159th Street, Tinley Park, Ill. 60477, by fax at (708) 802-8088 or on the Net at jryan@starnewspapers.com. Photos sent via e-mail must be in jpg format.

Sports | Business | Dimensions | Classifieds | Opinions | First Look
About Us | Staff Email | Subscription Information | Home Page

Back to top